

Paddle the Delaware: Explore its Upper “Scenic” River Reaches and the Fertile Estuary in the Tidal Reach -- You’re in for the Ride of Your Life!

The 2004 Delaware River Sojourn will be held June 7-14, in celebration of the 25th anniversary of the river’s inclusion in the National Wild and Scenic Rivers System.

A flotilla of rainbow-colored canoes and kayaks paddled by folks seeking kinships with nature will take part in this 10th annual river odyssey, one rich in American history and teeming with natural wonders.

From the scenic reaches of the upper and middle Delaware to the vast spawning grounds in the river’s fertile estuary, the sojourners will paddle a river of many moods and demands -- exploring a fragile ecosystem shared by bald eagles, bustling ports, blue herons, tug boats, wild rice, power plants, and laughing gulls. A few will paddle the entire trip, others a day or two.

For details, visit the Sojourn web site (hosted by the Delaware River Basin Commission) at www.delawareriversojourn.org where you’ll find:

- ✚ Highlights of each of the eight Sojourn 2004 river segments
- ✚ Background on the river’s inclusion in the National Wild and Scenic Rivers System
- ✚ Sojourn archives, including photo albums showcasing the camaraderie and the friendships which endure from year to year ... and sometimes far beyond
- ✚ Registration and waiver forms
- ✚ Detailed day plans providing information on camp sites, meals, launch times, rest stops, etc.

